

LARGE DRAFT CALL TO PLACE 150,000 MEN IN TRAINING

One of the largest movements of selective service men since the first increment last summer will begin tomorrow when 150,000 drafted men, of which 116,700 are white and 33,300 colored, will start for various training camps. The movement must be completed within five days, and reports reaching Provost Marshal General Crowder today indicated that everything was in readiness to start the men to camp.

The various draft boards throughout the country have certified a sufficient number of men to cover this new call to the colors and the railroads have made plans to forward the men to camp as fast as they are brought to the stations.

Pennsylvania has been called upon to furnish the largest number of men in this new call, 10,956 being its quota. Ohio is second with 10,202, while New York is third with 10,171. Every State will furnish men under this call.

The largest quota of Washington selectives to go at one time, since the draft law became effective, 417 white men, will report Sunday to their respective local boards, and leave for Camp Meade Monday. The colored men, numbering seventy-five, are to report Monday, and go to Camp Meade the following day, making the total for both classes 492.

The statement issued today by Provost Marshal General Crowder refers to this movement of new troops as "one of the nation's largest draft calls, which affects every State in the country."

Adjutant General Donovan and his assistants worked late last night, completing the lists and this morning announced the assignments by local board districts as follows:

Whites, local board No. 1, 56 men; No. 2, 31; No. 3, 31; No. 4, 35; No. 5, 50; No. 6, 55; No. 7, 29; No. 8, 9; No. 10, 51; No. 11, 21; total, 417.

Colored—No. 2, 21; No. 3, 4; No. 5, 1; No. 6, 4; total, 75.

The list is complete excepting for two men to be added during the day, making the total of all 492.

At each assembling, the men will listen to patriotic addresses in which they will be told some of the details of their coming experience and urged to keep in mind the great task they are undertaking.

Extensive search conducted by the police for Thomas H. Betts, retired coal dealer, who disappeared March 22 from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna B. English, 704 A street southeast, ended today when it was learned that his body had been found last night by Charles Collins, 3118 South street northwest, to the woods between American University Park and Conduit road. The body was identified at the morgue by W. T. Betts, a son.

Mr. Betts will be buried at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Rock Creek Cemetery. Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Alfred E. Barrows, pastor of Eastern Presbyterian Church.

That Mr. Betts wandered into the woods, became lost and exhausted, and died from probable hunger and exposure, is the opinion of coroner Nevitt, who investigated the aged man's death.

Several years ago Mr. Betts wandered away from the home of his daughter, but he was found and returned home.

Kaiser Wilhelm's war has made more pitiable than usual the plight of foundlings in Washington, according to the management of St. Ann's Infant Asylum, which will give a benefit dance in Knights of Columbus Hall, 606 E street northwest, Saturday night. The institution receives no aid from the Government, and war conditions have entailed hardships by increasing the cost of necessities for the 125 babies it harbors.

The orphanage is crowded, with two babies frequently occupying a bed designed for one. An appeal is issued for funds to buy two heavy blankets for each bed.

Clothing for adults as well as for children also is needed.

Editorial

The saddest man in all the world will be the one who stands by the side of the road watching the boys come marching home from "over there" and realizing that he did nothing to help those boys—not even to the lending of a few dollars at 4% per cent interest.

Perhaps this third Liberty Loan will be the last opportunity you'll have to lend money to Uncle Sam. Maybe the war will be over before another one is necessary.

If you're able to write, put your name on a pledge card for a bond. Don't take a chance on not being able to look a "Sammy" square in the eye when he comes back to us.

Tomorrow is Liberty Day—a day set aside for a little community patriotism and for the selling of third Liberty Bonds.

Let's hoop'er up—BIG!
